

Family Solutions

Child and Family Therapy Services at South Ridge Elementary School

Our Mission

The mission of Family Solutions is to provide high quality, comprehensive mental health services to the children, youth and families in and around Ridgefield, Washington. We believe that children are resilient and have the capacity to heal from adverse childhood experiences such as neglect, abuse, trauma and loss. The goal behind our services is to help children and caregivers grow and change in ways that facilitate the development of self and of healthy interpersonal relationships while also assisting children in achieving developmental milestones.

Who Are We?

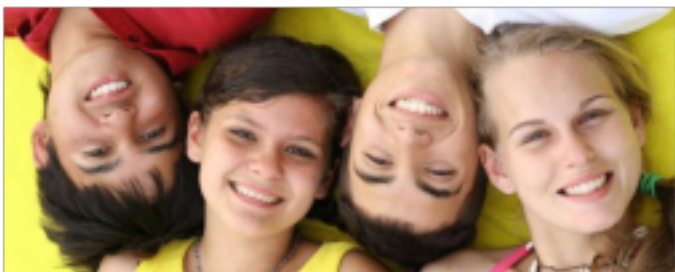

Family Solutions is a non-profit community mental health agency in Vancouver working in collaboration with Ridgefield School District to provide therapeutic services in the school setting.

Who Do We Serve?

We can provide services to children, youth and families who are eligible for Medicaid and have symptoms that warrant a mental health diagnosis. We work with families to overcome past losses, recognize and honor their strengths, process struggles to build hope, courage and recovery.

Contact Information

If you feel a youth in your home is in need of individual or family therapy and is eligible for Medicaid, please contact your School Counselor. For further questions, please contact our intake department at Family Solutions at 360-695-1014.
